"THE WEST HAS NO LITERATURE!" GENIUS OF THE WEST, CINCIRNATI, OHIO. COATES-KINNEY, | Editors.

THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE GENIUS OF THE WEST commences with the July number, 1854. This Periodical was established for the pur-pose of encouraging and introducing to the public everywhere.

ORIGINAL WESTERN LITERATURE.

"The West has no literature," was remarked by a prominent speaker in a public assembly, not a long time since. The West has a literature—a literature of her own—fresh, bold, vigorous, and beautiful—not refined into stupidity, not degenerated into obscenity—but looming up like her own mountairs, fertile as her rich soil, attractive as her blooming prairies. It has been the object of the Genius to gather in the choicest productions of this literature, and to send thom forth again, to encourage, to please, and to instruct. It is not surprising that the public have regarded this object with extraordinary favor—a favor which is evidenced by the remarkable success of the Genius of the West. It has elicited the attention and admiration of cultivated minds in all parts of the country. From South Carolina, from New England, from Oregon, from every quarter where it has become known, there come eager calls for the Genius, accompanied with words of such enthusiastic commendation, as may well excite in the editors, as well as contributors, feelings of pride and pleasure.

On the heels of this success, Mr. Durnan, the projector of this enterprise, is enabled to announce, for

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE FEATURES! Foremost, he has had the good fortune to associate with him Prof. Coatrs. Kinnry, who has purchased an interest in the Genius, and will hereafter devote his whole attention to its pages. Among the poets and prose writers of the West, Mr. Kinnry is conspicuous in the foremost rank; and the enlistment of his pen in the editorial department cannot fail to excite a deeper and still wider interest in the minds of the roading public.

The typographical exception of the work has also been improved, and so arranged as to afford a much greater amount of rending matter, without any advance in price the Rovolution, and we, their descendants, should labor to secure the blessings of individual liberty and national liberty.

We believe in Democracy—a government by the People and for the People—in the Democracy of free thought, free speech, free conscience, free labor, and free men—in the Democracy which loathes Oppression, and which does not bend its back to sustain the interests of a Clase, however powerful or imposing its numbers or position. A Democracy which does this, which despises the People, underrates their intelligence, disregards their opinions, and abuses their confidence, we look upon as a pretence and a sham. If man is to be considered merely as a stall-fed animal, to be satisfied when filled with creature comforts, then will free citizens and free laborers be looked upon as a nuisance and an incumbrance; but not when they are regarded as the life-blood of the Republic. We have been told that such a paper as we propose to print cannot live in the atmosphere of Harrisburg, that the politicians of Pennsylvania have so debauched her public sentiment as to crush out all regard for Justice, Humanity and the Rights of Man as proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence; but we do not believe this. Every friend of freedom and democracy has a personal interest in the reputation of the Commonwealth, and we trust every friend of the cause will do his part to sustain The Free Citizen, and reduct his slander on the Keystone State.

Terms.—THE FREE CITIZEN will be printed on a large and handsome sheet, at Two Dollars per year, payable invariably in advance. Three copies volume.

The proprietors being now established in a printing office of their own, it will be their object to extend the circulation of the Genius of the West everywhere, and they earnestly solicit the assistance of all who derive pleasure from literature, and especially of those who desire to encourage the growth of literature in the West, which shall command the respect of the world.

OR a large and handsome sheet, at Two Dollars per year, payable invariably in advance. Three copies will be sent for $5; 5 copies for $8; and 10 copies for $15. No paper will be sent unless the money ac-companies the order. Address A. M. GANGEWER, Harrisburg, Pa. of the world.

The Genius of the West is published monthly, royal octave form; thirty-two pages, superior paper and typography, and handsome cover. Each number is spiendidly illustrated.

PROSPECTUS OF THE FREE CITIZEN.

A PAPER FOR THE PROPLE.

THE undersigned proposes to publish at the seat of government of Pennsylvania, an Independent Democratic weekly newspaper under the above title; and, in announcing this purpose, we deem it proper to refer briefly to a few of the general principles which shall govern our course.

The Scripture teaches that "God created man in his

The Scripture teaches that "God created man in his own image," and that all men are consequently brethren. The Declaration of Independence recognises this truth when it declares that "all men are created equal, and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

We believe in the Constitution of the United States, which declares its purpose to be "to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty," and hold that all its provisions should be construed in accordance with this general purpose.

Eastman's Infallible Nick Headache Remedy..

THIS preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D., of Lynn, Mass., has been used in private practice for the last four years, with the greatest success. A radical cure has been effected in every instance where the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. It is now given to the public with the full confidence that it will do all that is claimed for it, and prove itself, upon fair trial, an infallible Sick Headache Remedy.

It is safe and pleasant to the taste, it brings immediate relief, and all who test its curative virtues rejoice in the removal of pain, and marvel at its power in alleviating so general, and often so fatal, a scourge
The following is from D. C. Baker, Esq., Mayor o.
Lynn, and President of the Howard Banking Company, Boston: Eastman's Infallible Nick Headache Remedy.

Dr. E. P. Eastman Dr. E. P. Eastman.

Drak Sir: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to be very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully appreciate their value.

Respectfully yours,

D. C. Baker.

LYNN, August 6, 1853.

Dr. E. P. Eastman.

My Dear Sir: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, since my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cared me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in every instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

Faithfully yours,

PHILADELPHIA, March 1, 1853.

DEAR SIR: For the past two years I have been severely afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and Piles, suffering constantly the pains and inconveniences attendant upon such complaints, without energy, being scarcely able to attend to any business. I used a great deal of medicine, without any apparent change until I used your "Hoofland's German Bitters." They have entirely cured me. I am now entirely free from pain and sche of any kind, and feel like a new man in every respect, and unhesitatingly recommend your Bitters to all invalids.

Yours, respectfully, JOHN R. CORY, Dr. C. M. Jackson. No. 12 Lagrange Place.

PHILADELPRIA, January 15, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I have used your "Hoofland's German Bitters" in my family for the last four years, for Liver Complaints and Dyspessia, and am pleased to acknowledge that we have received the greatest benefit from its use. I have recommended it to a great many afflicted with similar diseases, with the same good result. I have no hesitation in saying that it is an invaluable medicine, and hope you will be able to introduce it into every family in the Union.

Yours, truly,

Dr. C. M. Jackson.

These Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing great advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases. They possess great power in the removal of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most potent influence in weakness of the nerves and digestive organs. They are, withal, safe, certain, and pleasant.

New York, July 30, 1853.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have examined the "Avery Secting Machins," and cheerfully recommend it for its simplicity, durability, and es:ecially for the peculiar stitch made by it. The stitch is original, and in appearance is like the most perfect and handsome "back-stitching." We have thoroughly tested the strength of the sewing, and are satisfied that the stitch of this machine makes a stronger and firmer seam than can be made by hand. We take pleasure in recommending this Machine to our friends, and to tailors, seamstresses, and families generally, throughout the country:

A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort. THE CONFLICT OF AGES!

BY DR. EDWARD BEECHER. Remarkable Work has reached its Fifth Edition, in the brief space of Four Months! A success unprecedented in Theological Pub-

A success unprecedented in Theological Publications!

An impression has already been produced by this masterly treatise, the most profound, wide reaching, and permanent.

It is perfectly manifest to all competent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irrestible. There is not a question in Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the solution this work affords. Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future, will grievously err if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this book. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and debatings of the next hundred years. The reception of this work by the The logical press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endoraces the major, and as they are probably both right in their positive element, and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virtual Endorsement of the most powerful kind.

As regards the ability of the work, and its claims on the attention of all, the following extracts may suffice:

From the Princeton Revertory—Old School Orthodox.

suffice:

From the Princeton Repertory—Old School Orthodox.

It is characterized by great ability, by an earnest spirit, by frankness, candor, and courtesy. It has a special interest for us. WE HAIL IT AS AN ALLY. The author shuts his readers up to the choice between Orthodoxy and the doctrine of Pre-Existence.

Orthodoxy and the doctrine of Pre-Existence.

From the Universalist Quarterly and General Review, Jan., 1854.

We have the novel spectacle of a man clinging with a masterly grasp to all the fundamentals of Orthodoxy, * * * yet dealing it a blow teneath which it reels.

It would be difficult to find within the limits of a hundred pages any treatise or essay that can compare in importance with this analysis (B. iv) of Orthodox doctrines. Dr. Beecher has struck upon the right principle in his theory of typical interpretation, in the fifth of Romans.

WE abound in magazines and newspapers, suited to the wants and tastes of all classes, yet the thirst for mental recreation and intelligence, which is one of the characteristics of our people, encourages us in the belief that another well conducted publication will be amply sustained.

Competition, which has been called "the life of trade," is now such in the periodical line, that, by the ordinary mode, it is a hazardous undertaking to the publisher to attempt, even with a large capual, to establish a magazine or paper. Not unf. equently, thousands of dolfars are expended before it is made to yield a profit; and it has become a settled principle, that subscribers must be paid for, in one way or another. Periodicals are remunerative only when taey have a large circulation, and Premiums are commonly given to increase subscription lists.

We design to furnish a handsomely-printed, hightoned, witty, entertaining, and instructive Quarto, (a smitable form for binding,) which in one year will comprise a large amount of useful information, and as a reflex of the times and a record of current events will be found worthy of preservation. Intendirg it to be, most emphatically, a paper for the prople, we shall advocate their rights, their interests, their welfare; our motto being "the greatest good to the largest number."
